551. TO THE EMPLOYER/PLAN ADMINISTRATOR OF EACH PLAN IDENTIFIED ABOVE:

Each party identified above is provisionally awarded without prejudice, and subject to adjustment by a later domestic relations order, a separate interest equal to one-half of all benefits accrued or to be accrued under any retirement plan in which one party has accrued a benefit, including but not limited to the plans listed below, as a result of employment of the other party during the marriage or domestic partnership and before the date of separation. In addition, pending further notice, the plan must, as allowed by law, or as allowed by the terms of the plan in the case of a governmental plan, continue to treat the parties as married persons or domestic partners for purposes of any survivor rights and benefits available under the plan to the extent necessary to provide for payment to the surviving spouse or domestic partner of an amount equal to that separate interest or of all of the survivor benefits if at the time of death of the participant there is no other eligible recipient of the survivor benefit.

552. Each party is awarded one half of the community property interests in the above plans and benefits unless a different division is specified by written agreement of the parties. The community interest is that portion of the total plan or benefit determined by a fraction with the numerator representing the period of participation (or length of service) in the plan during marriage before separation and the denominator representing the total period of participation in the plan (or total length of service).

553. Each party who is a participant in a plan listed above must join that plan as a party to this case when joinder is required by law. (See Retirement Plan Joinder—Information Sheet [form FL-318-INFO].) A copy of this order should promptly be delivered to the plan or administrator thereof to help preserve your rights pending further orders or proceedings.

The parties are advised that further court orders may be required to enforce the division of these plans and benefits and to otherwise protect either party's rights to such plans and benefits. A Qualified Domestic Relations Order ("QDRO") or other order may be required under federal or state law. Each party should seek legal advice on this matter as soon as possible to help prevent loss of rights or benefits.

The court reserves and retains jurisdiction to make further orders necessary or appropriate to divide such plans and benefits including orders under FC§2610.

554. The attorney for the Petitioner Respondent (or that party if unrepresented) shall prepare any QDRO or other court orders necessary to divide the above plans (OR plan numbers _____ above) and benefits and shall submit such proposed orders to the other party or attorney for approval before submitting such orders to the court.

555. The attorney for the Petitioner Respondent (or that party if unrepresented) shall apply for an order joining the above plans (OR plan numbers _____ above) as parties hereto under the provisions of FC§§2060-2065.
