IN RE: ESTATE OF _____, Deceased.

Case No. _____

Section _____

A-5

ORDER DESIGNATING RESTRICTED DEPOSITORY FOR ASSETS

On the petition of _____, as Personal Representative of the above estate, for authorization to deposit assets belonging to the Decedent described as:

with _____,
[Name and address of Depository]

as a depository designated pursuant to Sections 69.031, Florida Statutes, ("Depository") it is

ADJUDGED:

1. The above named depository is designated as the Depository for said assets. The Depository is hereby authorized and directed to receive and hold, pursuant to the provisions of Section 69.031, Florida Statutes, the Decedent's assets. These assets shall be held by said Depository in safekeeping subject to instructions by the Personal Representative as authorized by court order. The restricted Depository shall not allow any withdrawals without a court order.
2. A copy of this Order shall be given to the Depository, and within fifteen days of delivery, the Depository shall file with this Court, if it has not already done so, its acceptance or rejection.
3. Any person or entity having possession or control of any of the Decedent's assets, or owing interest, dividends, principal or other debts on account thereof, shall, upon the Depository's demand pay and deliver the assets to the Depository. The Depository's receipt shall relieve the person or entity from all further responsibility.
4. Upon receipt of the Decedent's assets, the Depository shall file with this court its receipt and give a copy of the receipt to the Personal Representative.
5. Attorney of Record shall file with the Court the receipt of Depository's assets within thirty days from the issuance of the Letters of Administration.
