5. Non-Use of Other's Credit

Neither party shall incur any debt or obligation upon the credit of the other. If either party does so, he/shall shall repay, indemnify, and hold the other harmless as to any such debt or obligation.

6. Name Change

Petitioner 1 Petitioner 2 does does not request that they be restored to their former name of _____.

7. Complete Disclosure

Each party has made a full and complete disclosure of their assets and property, and neither has knowledge of any other property of any kind in which the parties have any interest. In the event it is discovered that either party has failed to disclose, whether knowingly or inadvertently, an asset with a value greater than $1,000.00, the other party may be entitled to one-half of its value upon written request to the Court.

8. Incorporation into Decree/Effectiveness of Agreement

If the parties jointly institute proceedings for a Dissolution, in this state or elsewhere, this agreement shall be presented to the Court in such proceeding with the request that it be adjudicated to be fair, just and proper, and that this agreement and all its terms and provisions be incorporated into the decree of the Court. If, at the time of the hearing on such Dissolution, either spouse is not satisfied with this Separation Agreement or does not wish a Dissolution of the Marriage, and if neither spouse files a motion pursuant to Ohio law to convert the Dissolution action to an action for Divorce, the Court shall dismiss the Dissolution Petition and refuse to approve this proposed Separation Agreement. In that event, the terms and provisions contained in this Separation Agreement shall be null and void and have no further legal effect.

9. Complete Agreement

This written agreement is the complete agreement of the parties. There are no other representations, or agreements, statements, or prior written matter that shall have any effect. Each party fully understands the agreement and is signing this agreement freely and voluntarily.

No modification or waiver of any of the terms this agreement shall be valid unless in writing and signed by both of the parties. No waiver of any breach or default of this agreement shall be deemed a waiver of any later breach or default of the same or similar nature.

10. Performance of Necessary Acts

Upon execution and approval by the Court of this agreement, each party shall deliver to the other party, or permit the other party to take possession of all items of property to which each is entitled under the terms of this agreement, and all periodic payments required under the terms of this agreement shall commence.

Within 15 days after journalization of a Decree of Dissolution of Marriage of the parties or of a Decree of Divorce between the parties, incorporating this agreement or any amendment or modification thereto, each party shall execute and deliver all deeds, conveyances, titles, certificates and other documents or instruments necessary and proper to effectuate all the terms of this agreement.

Upon the failure of either party to execute and deliver any such deed, conveyance, title, certificate or other document or instrument to the other party, this agreement shall constitute and operate as such properly executed document. The County Auditor, County Recorder, Clerk of Courts, and any and all other public and private officials are authorized and directed to accept this agreement or a properly certified copy of it instead of the document regularly required for such conveyance or transfer.

11. Other

We agree to the following additional matters: _____

12. Severability

If any provision of this agreement is held to be invalid or unenforceable, all other provisions shall continue in full force and effect.

13. Applicable Law

All of the provisions of this agreement shall be construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Ohio.

14. Mutual Release

Except as otherwise provided, the parties do release and forever discharge each other from any and all actions, suits, debts, claims, demands, and obligations whatsoever, both in law and in equity, which either of them ever had, now has, or may have or assert against the other for any reason up to the date of the execution of this agreement.

Each party waives all rights of inheritance and the right to share in the estate of the other, and waive all rights which would otherwise be available as a surviving spouse, except payments or rights included expressly in this agreement.
